

W Schnorr – Biography

W Schnorr – Interim Management QM & TQM

Product -, Process - & Corporate Quality

As mechanical engineer Werner has been working for different group companies, mainly automotive, focussing on both areas

- Development and quality of products
- Management of quality, processes, strategies and taskforces

The range of products specialized on includes

- Jet engines
- Car braking systems
- Precision drive chains
- Safety relevant mechatronics
- Complex plastics components
- Automotive interior modules
- Mechanical engineering / plant technology

His focal points as manager have been

- Product development and Engineering best practice management
- Global group and plant Environmental management
- Global group and plant Quality management
- Cross functional and international OPEX
- Strategic and international Process alignment and transformation
- Interim executive management

Major competencies developed include

- Corporate Quality Management
- Product and process optimization
- Reliability engineering, Simultaneous engineering
- Environmental management of products and processes
- Management systems, - initiatives & - taskforces: OPEX, TQM, Six Sigma, product safety, quality alerts
- Management of constraints and customer quality, thinking globally – acting locally
- Inhouse TQM-consultancy and TQM-program-management, increasing company value

His way of leadership combines systematic analysis and ingenious design of solutions. Doing so

- He provides direction as group facilitator working with people to visualize the big picture
- As mastermind he develops structure to complex technical-organizational systems
- He does delight customers by disciplined implementation of transformational programs

As a leader Werner keeps an eye on sharing vision, challenging processes, developing roadmaps, encouraging hearts enabling people to productively contribute.